Supporting Word on the Wash

In the same way as Keswick Ministries, Word on the Wash is an event for which we are dependent on gifts and donations to meet our costs rather than charging an entry fee. We are trusting in the Lord's provision to cover our budget of approximately £3,000.

If you would like to give towards the cost of putting on this event you can do so -

- in person, by giving today during the offering
- by post, making cheques payable to 'Word on the Wash' and sending them to: - Tim Boxall at 200 Hall Road, Clenchwarton, King's Lynn PE34 4DD
- online, by direct bank transfer to the 'Word on the Wash' account at :- HSBC, 40-26-11, a/c no. 91804111

Thank You!

Do use social media to tell your friends about Word on the Wash - search 'wordonthewash' on your social platform, follow us and use the hashtag #wordonthewash2017 during the event.

'Each one should use whatever gift he has received to serve others, faithfully administering God's grace in its various forms'. 1 Peter 4: 10.

We would love to keep you informed about Word on the Wash events (only!) – so, if you have not attended before, nor registered online before, and would like to stay in touch and receive our e-newsletter, please complete a contact details form at the Welcome Desk.

We would like to build up a list of 'publicity liaison' representatives from the different churches. If you can perform that role, receiving our publicity material for your church and encouraging others to attend, please sign up at the Welcome Desk - and talk to your church's leadership team.

We would like to strengthen the volunteer team for Word on the Wash. The event takes a lot of work behind the scenes and the logistics require many volunteers. The range of tasks is wide from welcoming, ensuring attendees are looked after well, serving coffee, techie stuff, to setting up and setting down the venue. If you would like to join the volunteer team, please sign up at the Welcome Desk.

We would love to help you use your God given gifts, so that you can bless others as much as we are blessed by those invited to speak, lead seminars or lead the children's programme.

Practical Details

Drinks – There will be water, squash, tea, herbals and coffee available free of charge throughout the event.

Toilets – These are located at the back of the church through the door to the tower. There are two toilets in the tower and further portaloos just outside located in the graveyard. Please note there are further toilet facilities at all the seminar venues.

Lunches - If you have pre-ordered a meal deal online before the event it will be available for you to pick up at the back of church from 1.00pm onwards. The 6 bap/baguette fillings and a selection of cakes work on a first come first choice basis. If you ordered a meal deal please ensure you pick it up and pay for it or WotW will have to meet the cost! Fresh fruit is also available to buy near the lunches. If you forgot your lunch or did not opt for a meal deal, the bakery, Coop, fish and chip shop and a newsagent are all within easy walking distance of the venue – please ask for directions.

Pre-schoolers – if you have a pre-school child please do make use of the vestry at the front of the building where there are toys and books for you to occupy little ones. The sound will also be relayed to this room so that you can hear all that is going on in the main nave. You can also access this room from outside on the North side of the building.

Speakers

Chris Wright was born in Belfast, Northern Ireland in 1947, the son of missionary parents, and nurtured as an Irish Presbyterian. After university he started his career as a schoolteacher in Belfast. Then, after completing a doctorate in Old Testament economic ethics, he was ordained in the Anglican Church in 1977 and served as an assistant pastor in Tonbridge. In 1983 he took his family to India and taught at the Union Biblical Seminary (UBS), Pune for five years as a mission partner with Crosslinks. In 1988 he returned to the UK as Academic Dean at All Nations Christian College (an international training centre for cross-cultural mission) and then as Principal in 1993. In 2001 he was appointed International Director of the Langham Partnership.

Tim Hastie-Smith as well as being the National Director of Scripture Union is also the Vicar of Bibury in Gloucestershire, known for its picturesque cottages but also for its annual duck race! For 10 years Tim was Headmaster of Dean Close School in Cheltenham, and was for 7 years chaplain and Admissions Tutor at Stowe School in Buckingham. He was appointed Chairman of the Headmasters' and Headmistresses' Conference in 2008. He has served on ten Governing bodies over the last 20 years. Over the years he has worked as a headhunter, a librarian, a burger bar chef and care home assistant, among other things. He is married to Joanne and has three children.
